1. Introduction

- 1.1. This document contains the GB Snowsport (GBS) Athletes' Code of Conduct ("the Code of Conduct") and sets out a code of conduct, general obligations, and the behaviour all Athletes who are selected to be a member of a GBS Team or GBS Squad will be expected to comply with. Breach of the Code of Conduct may lead to action under the GBS Disciplinary Policy, which may include action such as suspension or expulsion from the GBS Team/GBS Squad.
- 1.2. An Athlete should not agree to be a Team Member or Squad Member unless they are able to fully comply with the Code of Conduct.

Aims

- 1.3. To promote ethics, professionalism, and integrity within GBS and any GBS Team/GBS Squad.
- 1.4. To explain what is expected of you following your selection to a GBS Team/GBS Squad and that your actions, appearance, conduct, and demeanour will affect not only yourself, but also GBS and the GBS Team/GBS Squad.

Scope

- 1.5. The Code of Conduct is to be followed by Athletes as part of the GBS Squad Members Agreement. Athletes have already agreed to abide by the Code of Conduct as part of their Athlete commitments.
- 1.6. Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct will lead to disciplinary action in line with the GBS Disciplinary Policy. In addition, if your conduct is unlawful or illegal you may be personally or criminally liable with respect to civil and/or criminal proceedings, claims, or actions. GBS accepts no liability for legal breaches by Athletes regarding the Code of Conduct.
- 1.7. The Code of Conduct is designed to be read in conjunction with the GBS Internet and Email policy, the GBS Social Media Policy, the GBS Telephony Policy, the GBS Dignity and Respect Policy, the GBS Equality and Diversity Policy, the GBS Anti-Corruption Policy, and the GBS Disciplinary Policy that are published by GBS. These documents may receive revisions and updates occasionally, with the most up to date versions being available on the GBS Website.

2. General Obligations

- 2.1. Athletes shall:
- 2.1.1. comply with reasonable directions issued by the GBS Discipline Committee and reasonable directions of the relevant Head Coach;
 - 2.1.2. not be involved in, nor persist with any conduct or activity that he/she knows or ought to have known may bring themselves, the GBS Team/GBS Squad, GBS, or the sport into disrepute, contempt, scandal, or ridicule;
 - 2.1.3. not knowingly be involved in a situation which may bring themselves, the GBS Team/GBS Squad, GBS, or the sport into disrepute, contempt, scandal, or ridicule;
 - 2.1.4. not be involved in any conduct or activity that he/she knows or ought to have known may harm the name or reputation of GBS or any sponsor of GBS, or GBS's relationship or contractual obligation with any GBS sponsor;
 - 2.1.5. not allow any breach of the Code of Conduct to go unchallenged or overlook any breach that may have occurred;
 - 2.1.6. report any serious breach of any GBS policies, codes, or standards and must not prevent or attempt to prevent any other member of GBS Staff, Athlete, or GBS Volunteer from doing so.

3. Code of Conduct

Behaviour

- 3.1. Athletes are always expected to:
 - 3.1.1. Demonstrate exemplary behaviour. This includes acting in a responsible and respectful manner to others to project a positive image of snowsport to other Athletes, their families, Officials, spectators, and the general public.
 - 3.1.2. Be sensitive to local codes and customs. This is a matter of importance at international Events and Competitions where Athletes are present as guests of the host nation.
 - 3.1.3. Abide by the GBS Dignity and Respect Policy. Unacceptable Behaviour will not be tolerated in any form, whether it be physical, verbal, or psychological. Such behaviours covered by the Policy include Bullying, Harassment, Discrimination, and Victimisation.
 - 3.1.4. Ensure that they do not make offensive or abusive remarks, jokes, suggestive comments, derogatory comments, or create/use offensive nicknames.
 - 3.1.5. Ensure that they do not display behaviour that may bring GBS or the nation of Great Britain into disrespect.
- 3.2. Any Athlete who believes they have been subject to any form of Unacceptable Behaviour, by another Athlete, a member of GBS Staff, or GBS Volunteer, should inform the GBS CEO.

Communications

- 3.3. Athletes are expected to behave responsibly and respectfully when using any social networking site or application, telephony system, text messaging service, or any other form of communication when regarding GBS, a GBS Partner, or any GBS Staff, Athlete, or GBS Volunteer. Athletes must abide by the GBS Telephony Policy, GBS Social Media Policy, and GBS Internet and Email Policy.
- 3.4. Athletes are also expected to demonstrate appropriate use of mobile phones and consider the negative impact it may have on performance during training and Competition.

Smoking and Alcohol

- 3.5. Athletes must follow GBS' dry team ethos. From the day upon which a GBS Team/GBS Squad is assembled until it is disbanded during an Event or Competition, no Athlete is permitted to drink alcohol or to purchase or knowingly have alcohol in their possession without the consent of the Team Manager or Head Coach. The ethos may be relaxed for celebrations or other occasions involving (in either case) the GBS Team/GBS Squad as a whole at the discretion of the Team Manager or Head Coach.
- 3.6. No Athletes under 18 are allowed to drink alcohol at any time. Athletes must also abide by the alcohol laws of the country they are competing in.
- 3.7. Athletes are not permitted to smoke cigarettes, electronic cigarettes, cigars, any form of tobacco, or any other similar substances at any point whilst representing GBS or the nation of Great Britain.

Illegal Substances

- 3.8. Athletes are not permitted under any circumstances to practise the activities of taking, supplying, or administering any illegal substance found within any category at any time. This includes abiding to the World Anti-Doping Code 2015 (WADC).
- 3.9. Athletes must further acknowledge that GBS, the British Olympic Association, the Sports Council, FIS, and IPC have the right to conduct random, without notice dope testing, both during the course of Competition and outside Competition.

Corruption

- 3.10. Athletes must abide by the GBS Anti-Corruption Policy. Under no circumstances are Athletes permitted to involve themselves in the act of gambling, match fixing, fraud, or bribery during an Event in which the GBS Team/GBS Squad or an Athlete is involved (including providing any assistance to a third party).

Competitions and Events

- 3.11. Athletes should accept every victory and defeat with dignity and decency. The decisions of Officials should not be questioned unless through the accepted procedures for doing so.
- 3.12. Athletes must agree to deal with any differences of opinions or conflicts in respect of any Competition decisions through accepted processes.

Clothing

- 3.13. When supplied with a uniform or other representational apparel, it is to be worn as required. It is your responsibility to ensure that its presentation standards reflect the values of GBS.
- 3.14. Athletes must wear the uniform supplied at all times when participating as an Athlete, appearing in a GBS context, or at any other time as directed by the Head Coach.

4. Safeguarding

- 4.1. All Athletes must adhere to the GBS Safeguarding Policy.

5. Violation of the Code

- 5.1. Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct will result in the application of the GBS Disciplinary Policy.
- 5.2. Any Athlete who has reasonable grounds to suspect that another Athlete, a member of GBS Staff, or GBS Volunteer may be in breach of any of the Clauses within the Code of Conduct is required to inform the GBS CEO.
